

UNITED WAY SAYS THANKS, RECOGNIZES GENEROSITY IN CORTLAND COUNTY

April 1st, 2010

Before a group of approximately 70 volunteers and business representatives, United Way for Cortland County held its annual recognition and awards reception on Wednesday evening. It was announced to supporters that the United Way would reach 88% of their 2010 goal with $540,000. The United Way Board of Directors, Campaign Cabinet and staff are extremely grateful to everyone who recognized that in difficult times we should be thinking most of our friends and neighbors in need.

Jim Nunciato, owner of Wall St. on Court St. was recognized with the Andy Sonnek Memorial Award for outstanding efforts in volunteerism. Jim, a continuously committed volunteer to the United Way since 1989, has dedicated his talent to all three major areas of the organization. He has served on the Board of Directors, Allocations Committee, and the Campaign Cabinet. Jim is the only person to have served as Campaign Chair twice, helping the United Way raise more than a million dollars. His dedication and loyalty to this organization is unsurpassed; thank you to Jim Nunciato for more than 20 years of dedication.

Also honored was WXHC with the Community Service Award. John and Bruce Eves have continuously donated time and effort to the support of the United Way, and the entire Cortland County nonprofit community.
